Short-term rental fans & foes

By Mark Frost
 Chronicle Editor

The Chronicle Question of the Week to our digital subscribers on March 9 was: Have you ever stayed in an Airbnb or other short term rental? How was it? Do you think they're good or bad for a community? Why?

Diverse replies to Q&A

Beware, Glens Falls!

Without regulation air bnb's can ruin a neighborhood. The hamlet of Bolton Landing has been totally bought up by second home owners that rent them out when not using them. This has left no affordable housing for young families. Eventually, this will lead to unhealthy demographics, no school population, no volunteer firemen, etc. Short term rentals makes for partying groups such as at Glen Lake and Bolton and changes the ambience of a neighborhood. Beware Glens Falls. — W Burkowski, Bolton

'St. Paul' in person: St. Mary's, Luzerne

St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Lake Luzerne presents "A Visit with St. Paul," on the life of St. Paul, the Apostle, Saturday, March 18, 2 to 3:30 p.m. The event is free, open to the public, and refreshments will be served after. Info: 696-3030.

"With audience participation encouraged, Glenn Smith brings St. Paul to life through a dramatic presentation of the Great Apostle's life and legacy," says the press release. "Set while Paul is in prison, the audience gets to 'visit' him and hear his story.

Mr. Smith grew up in Lynbrook, N.Y., says his bio. "Raised Christian, he lost his faith at 19. Three years later, through a charismatic prayer meeting and a powerful three-day fast, he realized beyond doubt that Jesus is alive and loves us all beyond measure. Serving as an urban missionary, working for parishes, performing as St. Paul, and by writing, he has found many creative ways of sharing God's love."
