Lake George Baking Company on a roll

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

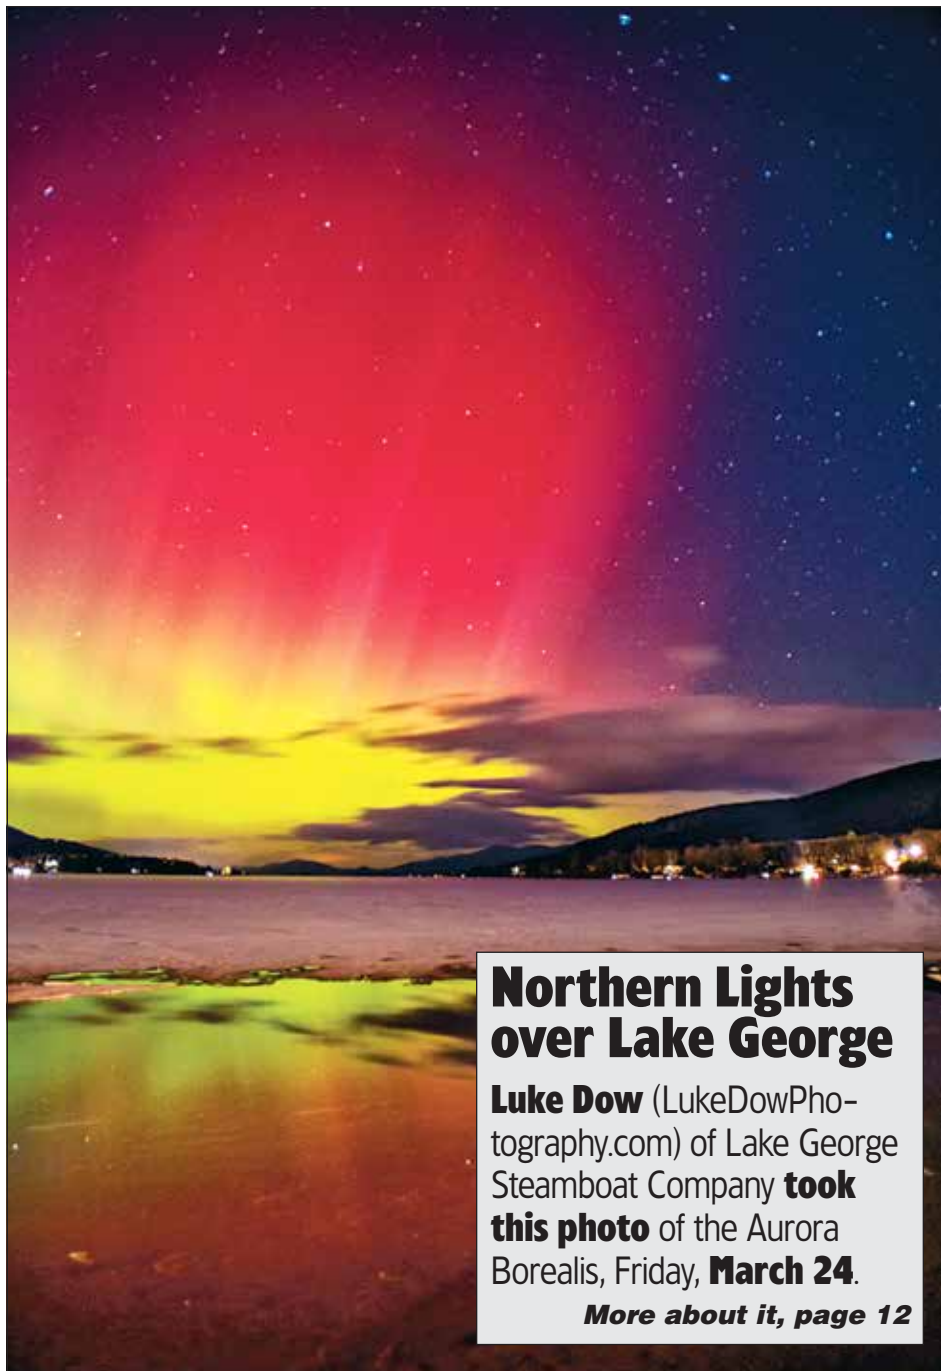

Lake George Baking Company is a comeback story.

Carl "Buster" Alberino and his wife Debbie started it roughly 15 years ago — just after the demise of their Vanilla Bean bakery in Troy. Now, they have 15 employees and locations in Lake George and Queensbury.

Their signature products are "Eclairs, Fudge Fancies — those are number-one," Buster said. Plus bread, cinnamon buns, and popular lately, stromboli.

It was not a given the "Queen of American Cakes" would get to where it is today. They had to start from scratch after losing

Congresswoman reacts: Last week's front page

I almost had a heart attack when I opened the Chronicle email and read that Communist China was sponsoring balloon fest! And then I remembered April fools day issue

Well done! You had this Congresswoman ready to take swift action hahahah.

— Rep. Elise Stefanik

Bobby Dick & Village Inn

I was so sad to learn of the passing of Bobby Dick. I just finished reading your "The Inside Scoop" about Bobby.

I felt bad that there was no mention of all the time that Bobby and The Sundowners played at the Village Inn in South Glens Falls. I believe that is the first place that they played. I just thought I would mention this and thank the late Eric D'Angelo for bringing them there!

OrthoNY is now GF Hospital's orthopedic provider

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

OrthoNY, a Capital District medical practice, is Glens Falls Hospital's new provider of orthopedic care, succeeding the hospital-owned Orthopedic Specialists, which it acquired as North Country Sports Medicine five years ago.

Dr. Andre Johnson and Dr. Adam Brod, the two remaining physicians in Orthopedic Specialists, have joined the OrthoNY practice.

Dr. Sean Kennedy, vice-president of the hospital's Physician Network, told The Chronicle, "Due to retirements and physicians leaving the area, we really had to sort of think outside the box. What was a good way to make a sustainable orthopedic" practice here?

"We looked into a lot of different options and OrthoNY seemed to be a great fit.

OrthoNY allowed us to preserve access to the care for our patients, as well as to expand on the services that we're able to provide."

Dr. Amar Parikh, a managing
