What to do about guns?

By Mark Frost
 Chronicle Editor

Last week's question that we posed to Chronicle digital subscribers was: What if anything should be done about guns?

At the very least ban assault type weapons
 — Clifford Mealy, Greenwich

An assault weapons ban to start. No one but police and military need those.
 — Maureen Devine, Bolton Landing

I strongly support the 2nd amendment but I strongly support

90 years old, doing stand-up comedy

By Mark Frost
 Chronicle Editor

It's not every day a 90-year-old woman does stand-up comedy to a live audience.

I went to the Strand Theater in Hudson Falls to see Marlene Osier take on that challenge on Friday, April 14.

Wow, she "killed," as comedians like to say. She was funny. She didn't just tell jokes. She

Lox of Bagels, Qby. since 1988, bagels by the thousands daily

By Zander Frost
 Chronicle Staff Writer

Lox of Bagels & Moor — on Main Street in Queensbury just east of Northway Exit 18 — is a three-generation business that make and sells thousands of bagels daily.

Starts 3rd generation; no website, 'we're old school'

Some bagels are sold wholesale, to Glens Falls Hospital, Lake George Steamboat Company, summer camps like Echo Lake, and other venues.

But most are sold in-house. Weekend lines stretch outside the store. The large parking lot is often completely full.

Lena and Mark Posniewski have owned the business since 2002. It was founded in 1988 by

Warren County agrees to fund bus merger of GF Transit into CDTA

By Cathy DeDe
 Chronicle Managing Editor

The Warren County Board of Supervisors on May 11 approved a resolution to support merging Greater Glens Falls Transit with Albany-based CDTA — Capital District Transportation Authority.

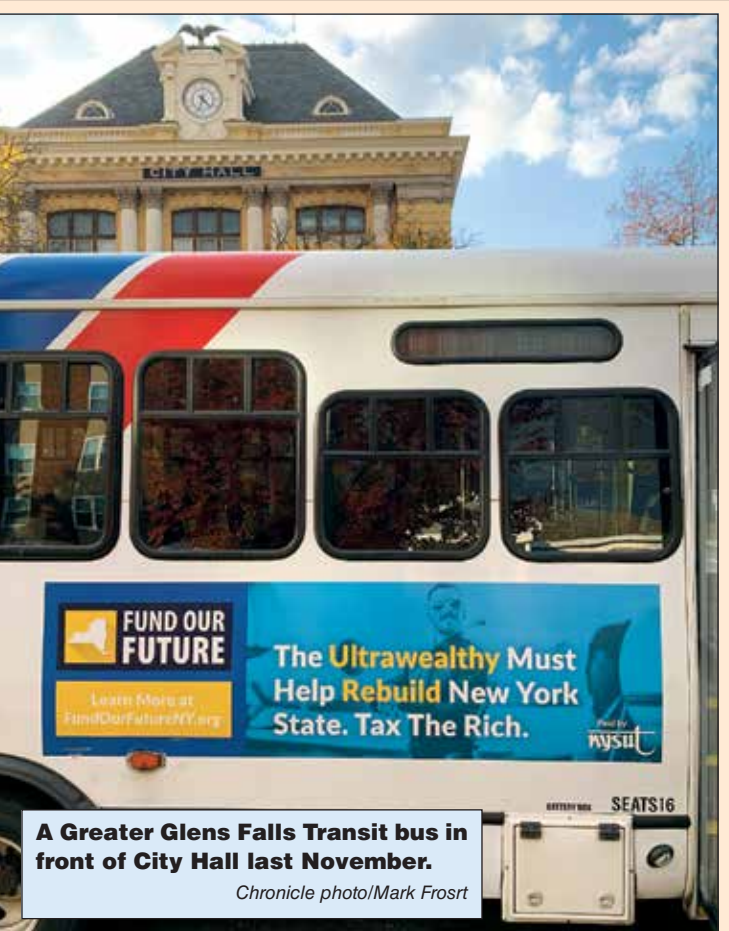

"This was the right thing to do," Board Chairman Kevin Geraghty of Warrensburg told The Chronicle.

"The City of Glens Falls can no longer do it on its own. Warren County certainly can't get into the bus service. CDTA is a proven provider. They've been doing this since 1970."

"It shows, we all try to work for the better, the good of the county," he said.

The County will fund the merger by annually contributing "one quarter of one percent of all
