Their Glens Falls 'BOO-Loon Festival' on Ridge Street is creative, wonderful & fun

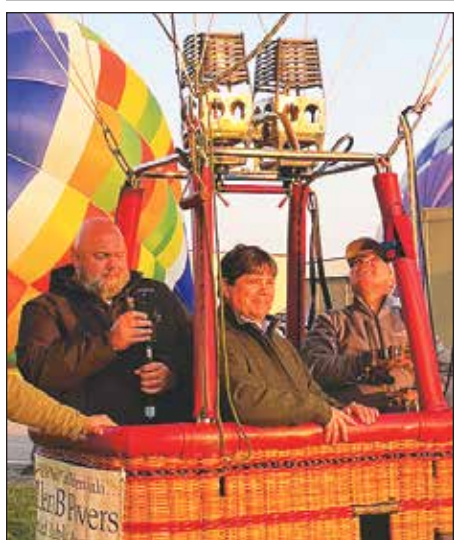

Michael and Dona Gall at 281 Ridge Street have created something phenomenal and wonderful in their yard. Their 'Glens Falls BOO-Loon Festival' is a tribute both to last weekend's Adirondack Balloon Festival and fast-approaching Halloween. Lots of people go vicious and gory, but Michael says, "My wife will not permit that stuff." Instead, the Galls go for fun. "I do it for the kids," says Michael. Their displays are witty and mesmerizing. Skeleton with a hula hoop. Rock musician whose skeletal fans raise their bony arms in unison. Cadavers at a campfire. Worth the visit and a long look. Good for kids. —Photos/text Mark Frost

Mayor Collins' first flight
Glens Falls Mayor Bill Collins took his first ever Balloon ride Friday morning. "Chuck Aiken and I from the Balloon Festival rode," the Mayor said. "We went off at the Airport and we came down at Tee Bird South in Moreau. It was fantastic."
