Todd Kusnierz, left, seeking a fourth term as Moreau Town Supervisor, faces a challenge from Jesse Fish, the retired water superintendent.

Hot race: Moreau!

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

Moreau Town Supervisor Todd Kusnierz and the rest of the Republican slate are being strongly challenged this election by a "Moreau United" ticket led by Jesse Fish, the former Water Superintendent who is seeking the supervisor post.

In the race for two town board seats, the Republican candidates are incumbent Alan Van Tassel and newcomer Carly Mankouski, co-owner of Radici restaurant in Glens Falls.

The "Moreau United" ticket for town board has incumbent John Donohue, currently the only Democrat on the board, along with Patrick Killian, a farmer and electrician for Local

Why no birds at their feeders?

To the Editor:

I am responding to Irene Taylor's inquiry as to whether other readers have noticed very few birds at their feeders. My seed and suet feeders haven't needed much filling since September due to so few "customers," and I find this disturbing. I have a federal license to rehabilitate injured

Faults Mark's Scoop: Right is more hateful

Dear Mark,

I am writing in response to your recent 'Inside Scoop'. I find much of it disturbing. The idea that hate can exist on the left is not wrong; it does. The problem is you ignore completely that it exists far more on the right. That is not my opinion it is the widely reported assessment of virtually all American intelligence agencies. And what does your need to

What should Ben do first?

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

Every week we ask a "Question of the Week" to our 13,500+ digital subscribers.

This week we asked: "Our new reporter Ben Westcott has just arrived in Glens Falls from Oregon. What's the first thing he should do here? Why?"

Pam Dougherty in Glens Falls: Ask him to investigate why there seems to be a problem between Mayor Collins & the farmer's market. He is a new reporter, therefore unbiased. I, for one, would like to know what's up with the apparent animosity.

Leslie Roods in South Glens Falls: Grab a New Way Lunch hot dog, Stewart's Ice Cream and head to Shepard's Park for
