Mighty Friday in Glens Falls

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

I've long argued that Glens Falls is "the busiest little city in America." Last Friday made my case yet again.

Within about a mile of each other, at least four diverse events drew crowds.

- The Adirondack Stampede Rodeo at the Cool Insuring Arena attracted 3,700 fans Friday — and sold out Saturday with 4,700, arena executive director Jeff Mead told The Chronicle.

- At Glens Falls High School it was Friday Night Lights, Section II, Class B football semi-finals. The home-standing Black Bears beat Schalmont 20-0. "Largest crowd since our Black Bears Block Party/home opener.

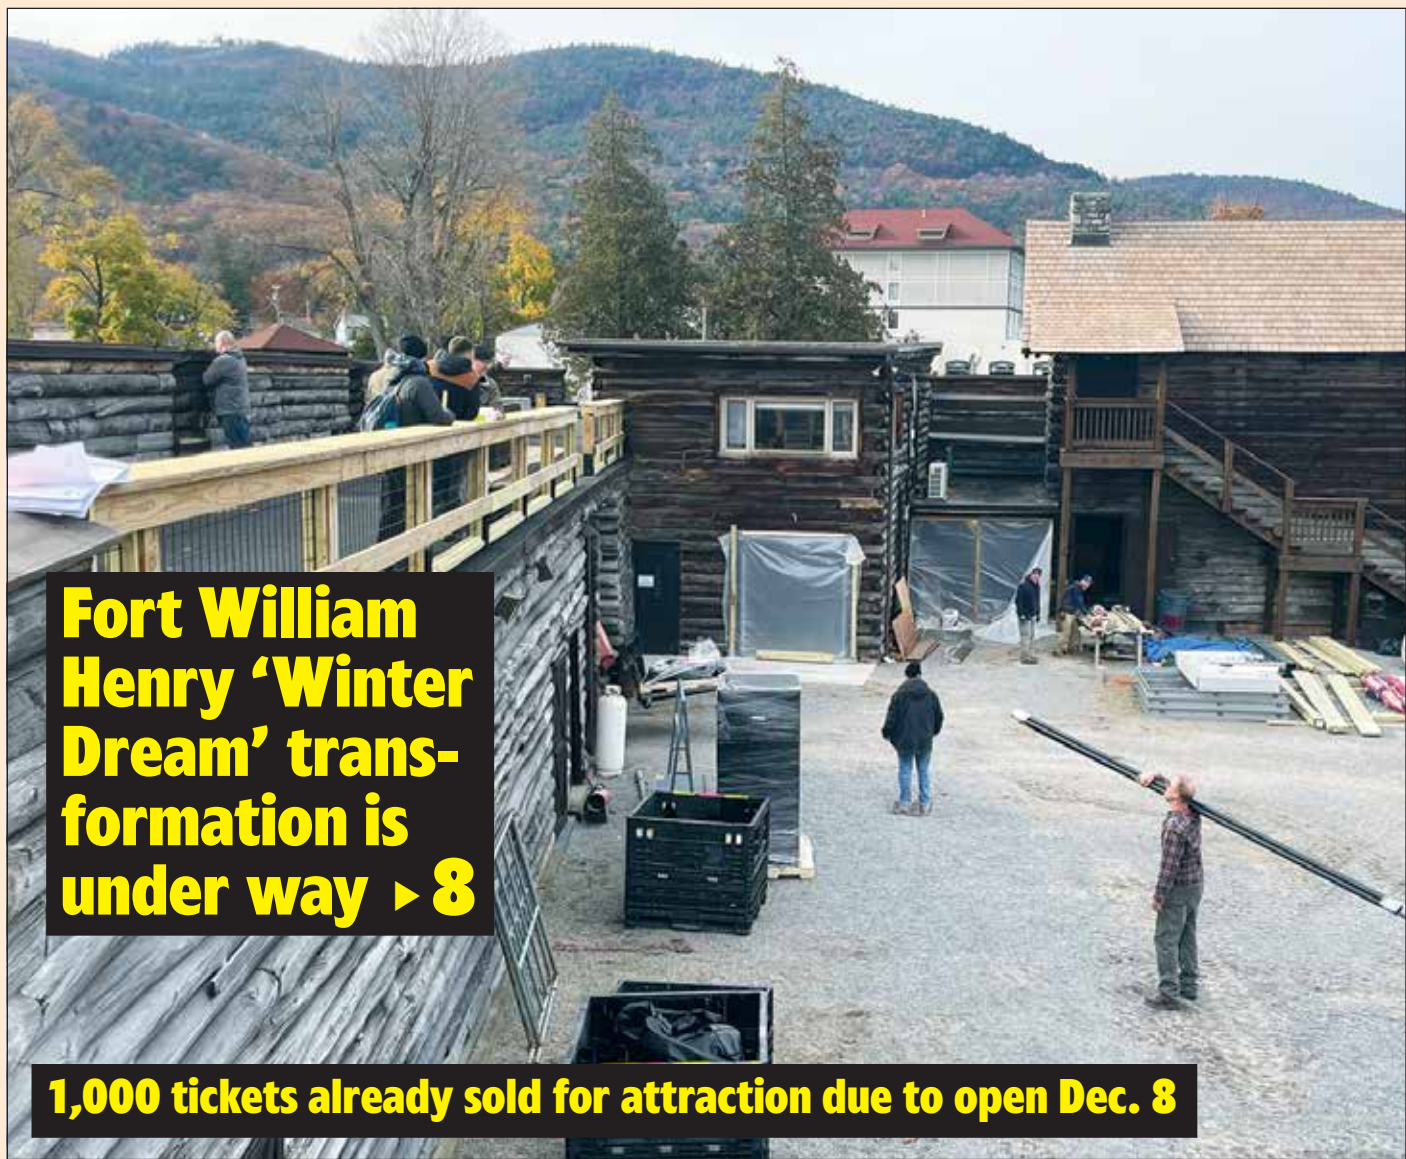

- "More than 375" music lovers packed First Presbyterian Church for an organ concert by Johan Vexo, choir organist at Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris.

- Downtown, it was Million Dollar Quartet, the musical

'Far more hate on the right'? He questions sources cited by writer
Dear Chronicle:
Your recent letter writer Ronald Johnson asserts that (as far as hate goes) there is "far more on the right."
His source: "the widely reported assessment of virtually all American intelligence agencies."
Is he referring to the 51 former intel officials who signed the infamous letter saying that the Hunter Biden laptop was "disinformation" after its authenticity had already been verified?
Or perhaps our "venerable"
