What is Siplon's strategy?

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

What are the Warren County Economic Development Corporation and its president Jim Siplon doing about AngioDynamics' decision to close its operations in Glens Falls and Queensbury, eliminating 350 jobs. That's the

Matt Funciello: 'Covid vaccines' unsafe, says 'science ignored' to favor 'massive profit'

To the Editor:

A story this past week suggested that the CDC authorized the use of "Covid vaccines" last September (Ben Westcott, "Warren County public health chief urges vaccination," Jan. 18 Chronicle).

The mRNA treatments we've taken to calling "vaccines" were only granted an Emergency Use Authorization (EUA) and that was by the

Dome sale nears

By Ben Westcott
Chronicle Staff Writer

Doug and Teresa Miller expect in the next two months to complete sale of their Adirondack Sports Complex — "The Dome" — in Queensbury to Albany-based Afrim's Sports, which owns five similar facilities in the Capital Region.

"Afrim's is in the best position to keep this facility functioning as a sports facility," Mr. Miller said. "And that's the important thing for the community."

Afrim's Sports Owner Afrim Nezaj said he first met the Millers back when they built the Dome. "I was happy they were building a facility because they

GF & Saratoga YMCAs eyeing merger

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

Discussions are far along that could merge the Glens Falls YMCA into the Saratoga Regional YMCA, The Chronicle has learned.

A member of the Saratoga Y board told The Chronicle that under current discussions, "Glens Falls would officially be part of the Saratoga Regional YMCA, and they would fall under our administrative team, our operations, things like that."

The Glens Falls Y has been working closely with Saratoga under a management agreement since July 2022. "They reached

'Can't read Chronicle since they supported election-denier Stefanik'

Hi,

I have been unable to read the Chronicle since they supported election-denier Stefanik (I do read the Chronicle email summation though). I thought the paper had more integrity than that.

While she felt the relentless
