Totally sold on solar total eclipse

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

The two takeaways I'll forever remember from Monday's total solar eclipse which we viewed in Plattsburgh:

- 1. Totality is a unique, magical experience. I hadn't understood that. I am so thankful we went. If ever I have another chance, count me in!
- 2. The traffic jam afterward was monumental. Have the Adirondacks ever seen this concentration of vehicles? Will they ever again? Going up was slow enough going that I wondered

Q&A What will you do if Biden wins?

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Big response to our question posed March 14 to Chronicle digital subscribers: What will you do if Biden wins? (Last week we published answers to the same question with Trump.)

When President Biden is re-elected I will breathe a sigh of relief. He has done a good job so far, though it has been underappreciated. Also, the alternative would be a complete disaster for our nation.

— Ron Johnson, Hudson Falls

After I have a good, long cry, I will pray he doesn't die in office making Kamala the Commander in Chief. The fear of the probability of that happening should be enough for voters to not vote for Biden!

LGA chief: We help pay to hand-harvest milfoil

Mark,
[In reference to letter headlined "Pontacoloni faults LGA on 'testy' note to LGPC," published in the April 4 Chronicle]: It would have been a little more balanced if you provided an editor's note that the LGA provides $140,000 a year towards the LGPC's hand harvesting program. Plus another $80,000 towards invasive species monitoring at boat inspection stations.

LG's Bob Blais, in memory & praise of Dennis Dickinson

Dear Editor:
I am writing this letter in fond memory of Lake George Supervisor Dennis Dickinson who passed away on Wednesday, March 3rd.
I was privileged to have served as Mayor during Supervisor Dickinson's entire tenure. During all those years our Town and Village experienced unparalleled cooperation.
