Her life after loved ones were struck down

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

They didn't know it, but Jasmine Luellen's four children were getting prepared for a surprise family trip to Disney World in Florida, when tragedy struck on June 12, 2022.

Jasmine's 8-year-old son Quinton Delgadillo and fiancé Jamie Persons, 38, were killed "by an intoxicated motorcyclist driving recklessly in the Town of Lake George," as Warren County describes it.

Jasmine was honored at the County's annual Crime Victims Ceremony last week, for her help in the prosecution of Anthony Futia, who was sentenced in February to 15 years to life in prison for aggravated vehicular homicide, and for her efforts in safeguarding her infant son.

"We had like a countdown going," to reveal the surprise Disney trip, Jasmine told The Chronicle. They were taking the kids on long outings, "to get them used to walking through Disney," she said.

She recounts the accident: "All the kids were on bikes. We went to the

DiLo's Donuts buys a building

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

DiLo's Heavenly Donuts is becoming DiLo's Good Eats and Heavenly Sweets — and moving into a permanent home in Hudson Falls.

Chris and Lucia DiLorenzo bought 25 Feeder Street, former home of Bonnie & Clyde's take-out food business, for $25,000 from the Washington County LDC.

They plan to expand. "We're still going to have our doughnuts, obviously," like their "famous" Holy Cannoli — a donut cannoli, Chris said.

"But we're going to have an entire new menu as well. Smash burgers, mini-hotdogs that no one has in this area." Plus appetizers, fries, wings, mozzarella sticks — "the whole nine yards."

The DiLorenzos intend to do mostly take out, though "we're going to have outdoor seating, picnic tables, umbrellas."

The space is tiny, about 416 square feet. But the property is Private jets flocked here for eclipse; will Belmont draw more?

"With the solar eclipse [on April 8] we had 35 jets" at Warren County Airport, Kevin Hajos, Superintendent of Public Works, told the April 26 County

Facilities Committee meeting. "We're expecting many more than that," with the Belmont Stakes coming to Saratoga Race Course in June. Airport Manager Robin Mapp is working with the FAA on possibly shutting down a runway to park jets "if we ran out of room on the apron." — Cathy DeDe
