Cathy: Do a Porches music fest Glens Falls

By Cathy DeDe

Chronicle Managing Editor

Sunny day, friendly walkable City neighborhoods, pretty stoops and street-facing architecture, open parks, a community rich in musicians and equally abundant in music-lovers who are happy to show up for a celebration.

Says great event in Massachusetts would click here.

Somerville, Massachusetts, where one of my daughters lives, has parlayed this set of elements into a festive day of music sharing called Porchfest. Just bands hanging

Park Commission votes 6-0 to use ProcellaCOR vs. milfoil in Hague

By Ben Westcott
 Chronicle Staff Writer

The Lake George Park Commission voted 6-0 (with two abstentions) Tuesday to accept an $18,698.69 bid from SOLitude Lake Management to treat two bays in Hague this June with the aquatic herbicide ProcellaCOR to combat invasive Eurasian milfoil. Voting for the application were Park Commission chairman Ken Parker and board members Catherine LaBombard, Kathryn Muncil, David Floyd,

Senior says youth on bike harassed her as she drove

To the Editor:

Sunday, May 25, 2024. I was driving on Webster Avenue and upon approaching Glen St., I noticed four young adolescent boys on bicycles.

They watched as I drove by and stopped for the red light bearing into the right lane to turn onto Glen. I saw one of the boys break from the group and rode past my car looking towards me in the window.

He appeared to go back to his group but came up beside my car as I was turning onto Glen St. He cycled beside me on the left side glancing at
