Basset pup injured at East Field

By Ben Westcott
Chronicle Staff Writer

A five-month old basset hound puppy suffered a wound on his neck after he was allegedly bitten by a boxer/pomsky mix near East Field three weekends ago.

What if Trump wins?

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

The digital news site Axios headlined an Oct. 6 item, "If Trump loses," wondering not only if Trump would accept the outcome but how the Republican Party would ever recover.

CNN reported in August, "President Joe Biden said...he doesn't have confidence there'll be a peaceful transition of power if former President Donald Trump loses in November..."

Less asked, it seems to me, is

Tough times for Orvis

The Manchester, Vermont-based retailer said it will cut 8% of its staff, eliminate its catalogs and close several as yet unidentified stores as it goes through "a period of business evolution that requires us to think differently." Photo shows its long-standing store in the outlet half-mile north of Northway Exit 20.
