Lake George Battlefield statues restored

The three classic bronze statues in Lake George Battlefield Park — Battle of Lake George, Mohawk Warrior and Isaac Jogues — have undergone a $48,000 restoration which will be celebrated on Friday, June 27 at the park. (See sidebar with schedule of events.)

“World-renowned sculptor Dan George, a Lake George native, provided the impetus for the restoration project,” writes the Lake George Battlefield Alliance, which oversaw the restoration and is organizing the celebration.

Mr. George succumbed to cancer on Jan. 4 of this year. His wife Erica Marks, who will

Ground broken: GF Hospital new Emergency Dept.

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

At a ceremonial ground-breaking Thursday, Glens Falls Hospital President and CEO Paul Scimeca said the Capital Campaign for its Sheridan Emergency Department expansion has raised $14.3 million of its original $15 million community contribution goal.

Then he upped the ante by $2-million. “Not surprisingly,” said Mr. Scimeca, “since we first envisioned this project two years ago, some costs have gone up...by about $2 million.” He said the Hospital Foundation Board voted to increase the
