Glens Falls keeps upping its sign game!

Chronicle editor Mark Frost, who took this photo, writes: My reaction was Wow! on first seeing this new wall painting last Thursday as it was being created by Hannah Williams. It promotes Sweetside Records, the store within at 18 Curran Lane, part of the Shirt Factory complex redeveloped by Eric Unkauf on the east side of Glens Falls. More inside on page 8.

‘Nitrous oxide killed my son’

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

Kathleen “Kate” Boyle of Queensbury addressed the Warren County Board of Supervisors at their Friday meeting.

“I’m here today because nitrous oxide abuse has devastated my family.

Ms. Boyle continued, with emotion: “On May 7, my son, Zack Ignazio, who struggled with addiction, inhaled nitrous oxide from a canister he purchased at a local smoke shop.

“He stopped breathing and his heart stopped.

“EMS did CPR, but it was too late, and life support was removed on Mother’s Day May 11.

“Many people, like my son Zack, did not realize how dangerous this was.

“He did not fully understand the risks of inhaling nitrous oxide, and that lack of awareness is part of why these tragedies happen.

“Zack had easy access to canisters at many of the smoke shops both in Glens

NYS bans his pants

Hi Mark,

I’d like to share an interesting story with you and your readers.

I just tried to buy a pair of work pants from the Duluth Trading Company and was surprised when they said they can’t sell them to me since I live in NYS! Apparently the pants have a coating on them which our state has identified as unlawful. CA has also banned them but it’s OK for

Drivers increasingly aggressive in town

Dear Editor,

I’m not sure if you or others in the Glens Falls region have noticed, but since the end of the Covid shutdowns, drivers here have become increasingly aggressive, frequently speeding through the city, and more alarmingly, through school zones.

During the initial 2020 shutdown, traffic tapered off

Brock: Mayor solved problems when I was a Councilman

Dear Mark,

[On July 31], the Chronicle published an article about a shooting at 56 Walnut Street.

What surprised me was that apparently the Common Council oversees nuisance problems, and I understand some of them aren’t happy with the results. When I was on the Council (2006-2013), if
