Horrific 21 dog deaths in Argyle

By Ben Westcott
Chronicle Staff Writer

Town of Argyle Dog Control Officer Nancy Quell was one of the first to arrive at Anastasia's Acres Dog Boarding in Argyle after 21 dogs died overnight Aug. 23-24 when the facility's owners allegedly failed to provide adequate water and ventilation for the animals.

Control officer: 'I can't get the images out of my head'

"From my point of view, it was horrendous," Ms. Quell told The Chronicle. "I'm still struggling today with it. I'm still struggling with what I saw. I go to bed at night and I can't get the Subject: Chronicle Question of the Week: Do you care about Taylor and Travis getting married?

Answer: Taylor and Travis who??

In a lighthearted tone, I think the real compelling questions us GFers need to ask are.

#1. What will happen to KFC once Popeyes opens?? I am not a fan of Popeyes,
