Glens Falls Brewfest, Shirt Factory Spicy Food Meltdown, Fort's Battles & Beverages

The Feeder Canal Alliance's Glens Falls Brewfest, The Shirt Factory's Winter Meltdown Spicy Food Festival and the Fort William Henry's Battles & Beverages all take place this week and weekend. Plus, Glens Falls Restaurant Week.

Here's a quick overview.

Brewfest is back at The Q, events all week!

The Glens Falls Brewfest returns to its original site — the Queensbury Hotel — on Saturday, March 21. Organized by and benefitting the Feeder Canal Alliance. Two sessions: Noon-3 p.m. and 4-7 p.m. Tix: $50, $15 for designated drivers. Info and advance tix: feeder-canal.org or 792-5363. Music by Josh Breden for first session, Caity Gallagher for the second.

This year, the Canal Alliance planned a full week of events leading up to and even after the main tasting. Tix not needed for the added local gatherings.

Unasked question at AOC 'Town Hall'

Mark,

It's clear that the Town Hall meeting at the Wood [on Sunday, March 8, by Congress members Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez of the Bronx and Pat Ryan of Kingston] was packed with Democrats.

Considering the speakers, that was to be expected and I applaud the fact that they traveled up to "Red Country" to deliver their message.

This is democracy at the
