Guilty plea, probation in Argyle dog deaths

By Ben Westcott
Chronicle Staff Writer

Anastasia Palulis, co-owner of Anastasia's Acres dog boarding in Argyle, was sentenced to two years probation Wednesday, May 27, after pleading guilty in Argyle Town Court to misdemeanors in the deaths of 21 dogs left overnight at the facility with no water or ventilation in August 2025.

Magistrate Stacy Davis pronounced the sentence.

Standing before her, Mrs. Palulis said, "I was solely responsible for the housing and day to day care of dogs at the facility. They were my responsibility, and for that I will be forever sorry."

Prosecutors deemed it an accident caused by forgetting to turn on the air conditioning.

The misdemeanors were Overdriving, Torturing, and Injuring Animals; Failure to Provide Proper Sustenance.

Mrs. Palulis's property will be monitored by dog control officers during the probation period, the magistrate told The Chronicle. Additionally,
