Celebrations everywhere!

Independence Day — America's birthday — is always cause for local celebration, all the more this year for our 250th!

This Chronicle overflows with things to do, plus thoughts on where our nation is right now.

Glens Falls celebrates Friday, July 3, in Crandall Park: The free Glens Falls Symphony Orchestra Independence Day Pops Concert starts at 7:30 p.m. climaxing with fireworks to music. Pre-concert fun too.

NYS Men's Golf Amateur at GF Country Club

By Cathy DeDe
 Chronicle Managing Editor

Glens Falls Country Club will host the 103rd New York State Men's Amateur Golf Championship, Tuesday to Thursday, July 7-9. Spectators are welcome, for free, to competition rounds.

"It's the best amateurs in the state," says GFCC General Manager Jason Polka.

This is Glens Falls Country Club's first time since 1962 hosting the event. The Donald

Ross-designed course course is a "gem," says Andrew Hickey, New York State Golf Association

Championship Director. He told competitors, "You're"
